

Religious School Director Position
Congregation Beth Emeth, Herndon, VA

Seeking a full-time Religious School Director for our K-7 program of 200+ students. The ideal candidate is an experienced, formal Jewish educator with prior supervisory experience and a proven track record as an extremely organized leader able to multi-task. We are seeking a candidate with excellent oral and written communication skills who is energetic and enthusiastic, approachable and empathetic, creative and forward-thinking, and able to work well with both children and parents. Minimum -- Bachelor's Degree with 3 additional years relevant experience in Jewish Education, plus supervisory experience.

Congregation Beth Emeth is a welcoming, dynamic Conservative congregation offering educational opportunities for all ages. Our community is inclusive, egalitarian, warm and open. Located in Fairfax County, Virginia, residents enjoy easy access to kosher food, a thriving JCC, Gesher Jewish Day School, and nationally recognized public schools. As a vibrant suburb of Washington, DC, we offer proximity to museums, parks, theatre, and all our nation's capital has to offer.

Interested candidates please send resume to edsearch@bethemeth.org