

The Light

VERSE 1:

GG, GG, GG, GG, C D

G

With everything in her life, she was always self-defeated, GG, GG, GG, GG, C D

G

She tried to believe, but she just always felt un-needed. GG, GG, GG, GG, C D

G

Em

Something was always holding her back,

C

D

An impossible weight, an impossible task.

G

Em

She always thought, "Who will believe in me?"

D

I surely don't, so what good can they see?"

G

Em

D

Like the Exodus, all she wanted to be was free.

BRIDGE:

G

Em

A struggling child with no future in store,

D

Never thought she was good enough, but always wanted more.

G

Em

D

Her life laid out, her future fading away

CHORUS:

G

C

She feels alone inside,

Em

D

Make her feel better, make her feel all right.

G

C

She thinks it's all her fault,

Em

D

Help, let her open her dusty mental vault.

G C
She hates everybody and everything,
Em D
Help, bring her into the light.
G C
She feels like she has control of nothing,
Em D
Help, bring her into the light.
G C
Her life's just a tunnel, dark and gray,
Em D
Help, bring her into the light.
G C
Her depressive nature sounds so cliché,
Em D G
Help, bring her into the light.

VERSE 2:

GG, GG, GG, GG, C D

GG, GG, GG, GG, C D G

(Repeat chords used in above verse)

In a twisted way, selfishness gave her satisfaction.
She still felt remorse, but never saw a better course of action.
She stole from her parents; she stole from her friends,
Both time and money, both weren't well spent.
Alcohol and cigarettes, to wash away her pain,
She thought they would cure her, not be her bane.
Her friends, they all left her, her actions seemed so inane.

BRIDGE:

Help, bring her into the light.

G C

Her depressive nature sounds so cliché,

Em D G

C

Help, bring her into the light.

Em D

**Light, tonight,

G C

**Light, alright,

Em D G

**This moonlit lullaby, tonight,

C Em D

**Please, G-d, bring her into,

(cut) (end on) G

**The light.
